

PRODUCER SPOTLIGHT

Champagne Tellier is a standout grower-champagne producer led by brothers Quentin & Alexandre Tellier, representing a new generation of terroir-driven wine makers. Although their family's vines date back to 1936, the brothers began bottling their own cuvées under the Tellier name in 2016, after years of selling fruit to noted champagne houses.

tellier “les massales” extra brut, france (92pt)

A blend of old-vine Chardonnay, Pinot Meunier, and Pinot Noir across Moussy, Pierry, and Chavot-Courcourt. Long lees aging brings layers of lemon zest, green apple, brioche, and chalky minerality. Focused and vibrant on the finish.

tellier “les massales” brut rose, france (91pt)

A pale salmon blend of Chardonnay, Pinot Meunier, and Pinot Noir from organically farmed, heritage vines. Shows wild strawberry, pink grapefruit, and rose petal with a silky, mineral-driven palate and crisp, elegant finish.
